

RESIDENCY DIRECTOR

Come join our vibrant Mental Health team in Boston at the VA Boston Healthcare System (VABHS), New England's premier referral center for Veterans' healthcare and named a "Top 100 Places to Work" seven of the last eight years by the Boston Globe.

VABHS consists of three academic medical center campuses and five community clinics. Our Mental Health Service has a strong academic affiliation with Harvard Medical School (HMS). Harvard South Shore is an ACGME accredited program with 32 residents. This residency is fully integrated into the Mental Health Service at VABHS with a rich clinical environment across a broad continuum of psychiatric care.

HMS and VABHS seek an outstanding psychiatrist with strong academic credentials, significant executive or program administrative experience, and the energy and vision to lead the Harvard training program. Interested applicant's accomplishments should be commensurate with academic appointment as assistant professor or associate professor of psychiatry at HMS. Successful applicant must be board certified in psychiatry with a minimum 5 years of experience post-residency. Prior experience as a training director or associate training director is preferred. US citizenship is required.

VABHS, an academic leader with strong research programs and affiliations with several nationally recognized clinical research centers, offers a highly competitive salary commensurate with experience and academic rank, liability protection, and a generous leave and benefits package.
