Brigham and Women's Hospital
Founding Member, Mass General Brigham

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL
TEACHING HOSPITAL

Research Scientist

BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL

The Department of Psychiatry at Brigham and Women's Hospital is an academic and teaching hospital and affiliate of Harvard Medical School. The Department is seeking one or more researchers with expertise in the fields of human behavioral research, translational research, and/or clinical investigation. Candidates should be psychiatrists or have a doctoral degree in psychology and must have a demonstrated record of significant research and scholarly productivity. The ideal candidate should also have some clinical expertise and be a talented and experienced teacher and mentor. Clinical licensing and effort as part of the position is encouraged but not required

Academic rank at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with training, experience, and achievements.

If interested, please send CV to: Katherine Burdick Ph.D., Vice Chair for Psychiatry Research, Department of Psychiatry, Brigham and Women's Hospital, 75 Francis St., Boston, MA 02115; kburdick1@bwh.harvard.edu

Employment Conditions:

https://www.massgeneralbrigham.org/Employment-Conditions

EEO Statement

Harvard Medical School and Brigham and Women's Hospital are equal opportunity/affirmative action employers with strong institutional commitments to diversity in their faculty. Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply.